

Computer Consultants Corporation

Dreamweaver

Advanced

Length of course: 1 class days (6 hours)

Objective(s): Students will learn to use frames, layers, templates, server side includes, behaviors, forms, and database integration to develop a powerful, interactive website.

Prerequisites: Dreamweaver Comprehensive Introduction, or equivalent experience.

Cascading Style Sheets

- Creating and Applying Styles
- Internal vs. External Style Sheets

Using Frames

- Why use frames?
- Creating Frames
- Targeting Links to a Frame
- Frame Properties
- No Frames Content

Libraries and Templates

- Creating a Library
- Adding and Editing Library Items
- Using Library Items in Pages
- Creating a Template
- Applying a Template to a Page

Multimedia

- Using Flash Buttons
- Inserting Flash Objects
- Audio and Video Files

Creating Dynamic Pages

- Building a Navigation Bar
- Using Behaviors
- Popup Messages
- Detecting Plug-ins and Browsers
- Using Behaviors with Layers
- Dynamic HTML
- Using Timelines

AJAX & SPRY Features

- What is Ajax & Spry?
- Creating an Ajax & Spry Page
- Exporting to Ajax & Spry
- Import Data from Ajax & Spry

Working with Form Data

- Creating a Form for Data Input
- Client-Side Form Validation
- Displaying Form Data
- Connecting to a Database
- Saving Form Data in a Database
- Displaying Data from a Database